- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a result (complainant to refer via exams officer to awarding body post-results services)
- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a centre decision not to support a clerical re-check, a review of marking, a review of moderation or an appeal (complainant to refer to the centre's internal appeals procedure)
- Centre fails to adhere to its internal appeals procedure.
- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong script for a candidate.
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service.
- Centre applied for a post-results service for a candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission.

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Knightsfield School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by contacting the subject coordinator by email or telephone.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to the Exams Officer by email or letter. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 10 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must Write a letter or email to the Exams Officer detailing the exact nature of the grievance.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must write or email the Exams Officer appealing the decision and detailing the reason(s) why the complaint has not been properly dealt with.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 10 working days.

The appeal will be referred to the Chair of the Strategy and Pupil Development Committee.

It will be the responsibility of the Head Teacher to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
